Year Ten GCSE Drama Blue Remembered Hills

Homework 3

Imagine that you are one of the characters now aged 25. It is 1968, the time of hippies and flower power, long hair, mini-skirts, droopy collars, Revolution, the Beatles and psychedelia. However, much of this may not have hit the Forest of Dean.

Prepare for a hotseating activity next lesson. You will be asked these questions:

What job are you doing now?

Are you married?

Any children?

Do you still keep in contact with the others?

How do you feel now about Donald's death?

Were you responsible?

Were the others?

What is Wallace Wilson doing now?

Do you see him?

There will be other questions too so you must have a very clear idea of what your character is like now.

You must write a page, describing your character in the first person and outlining just what you are doing now in 1968 and how Donald's death has affected you.
